

THE COLUMBIAN

BLOOMSBURG, FRIDAY, MAY 15, 1903

Ball Road Time Table. LACKAWANNA & BLOOMSBURG RAILROAD.

THE CAMPAIGN COLUMBIAN. TO DEMOCRATIC VOTERS.

We will send the COLUMBIAN to persons in this county from the 7th June, until after the November election for 75 cents, cash in advance.

Rev. Ashby officiated in St. Paul's Church on Sunday last. WANTED—A lead of kindling wood at the COLUMBIAN office, on subscription or otherwise.

Milton is a highly favored locality; last week regarded the champion pigeon shot when an exhibition of his skill and on the 20th Theodore Tilton is to lecture there.

Wanamaker & Brown are among the most enterprising business men in Philadelphia. Their clothing house is enormous, and they employ an army of men, women and children.

The picnic grounds at Rupert are being put in repair for the summer. Under the management of W. R. Tubbs, the proprietor, there is no pleasanter place for picnic parties in this section.

ROBERTS—Of late numerous robberies have been committed in Millers, Heaver, Main and Locust. All are supposed to have been perpetrated by the same man. A well directed lead or two of breakshot might check the thieves.

Mayer Brothers advertise their wholesale and retail drug business this week. This firm is one of the most enterprising business houses in this section, and their rapidly increasing trade shows the estimate which the public puts on them.

Ex-Commissioners Schertz and Williams have appealed from the recent report of County Auditors White, Squires and Coon and entered bond in the Prothonotary's office on Monday, in the sum of $39,101.68 each.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Homestead Sewing Machine in another column. These machines are highly recommended, and those desiring a good one at low rates should apply to J. H. Kendall & Co. 630 Broadway New York.

Mr. W. H. Jacoby, the popular reporter and general gentleman, commencing his career on the devil's tripod and graduated a full-blown editor his present honorable position in his county is not wonderful.—Montour American.

If you have a boy who is in the habit of loafing about the street, jumping on trams when in motion, taking him to a surgeon, and having leg amputated at once. It can be done to a better advantage than after the limb has been all mangled up by the cars, and then the worry will be off your mind, you know.

E. A. Raven and H. P. Chamberlain, formerly of Bloomsburg, have opened an Ice Cream Parlor and Garden at 628 Rice Street Philadelphia, opposite Franklin Square. The place has been thoroughly refitted and the proprietors will be pleased to see any of their Bloomsburg friends while "doing" the Centennial.

The Diocesan Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of Central Pennsylvania, will be held in the Church of the Nativity, South Bethlehem, beginning on the 15th day of June next. At a meeting of the vestry of St. Paul's Church, Bloomsburg, on the 15th inst. E. R. Drinker, J. W. Homestead, and Geo. E. Ellwell were elected lay deputies to represent this parish in the convention.

BLOOMSBURG MAY 15th 1903. Attention All.—The Bloomsburg Central Railroad (as heretofore) offer their services free of charge to any Lodge, School or Association of citizens of this county of Bloomsburg, that propose to take part in a proper observance of Decoration Day.

A. W. MORROW, Leader of Band. We have received from J. H. Butler & Co., Publishers of Philadelphia, a copy of the new Primary Geography, and also the Intermediate Geography, designed for schools and academies. The books are illustrated by copper-plate maps and contain numerous engravings representing scenes in all countries of the globe, also a concise system of map-drawing. They are used in every State in the Union.

GRANDER PICNIC.—There will be a Picnic held in Knorr's grove, Rupert, Pa. the 1st Friday of June (it being the 2nd) at 10 o'clock a. m. under the control of the Patrons of Husbandry of Columbia and Southern Luzerne Counties. Everybody invited. Speakers will address the people. Tables provided. Bring the Band.

County Grange, meets at Centre Hall, Centre township, Columbia Co., the 3rd Friday of the 16th) Catawissa Pa. May 12, 1903. E. M. TEWKSBERY, Sec'y.

PLANTING FLOWER SEEDS.—A florist furnishes to amateurs the following reasonable hints: This being the time of year for planting flower seeds, some instructions that will lead to success may be reasonable also. Many people are fond of flowers and would willingly cultivate them if they knew how. This is not designed to be a treatise on the subject, but merely to point out a few leading principles to start with. After that a little common sense coupled with practical experience, will lead to good results.

THE "ONE CUP PREACHER" who held forth here about four years ago, delivered a discourse in front of the Exchange Hotel on Wednesday last to a curious audience. His singing was not equal to Sankey's but this young man cannot be expected of a man who makes the street his pulpit. The sermon was not very coherent, but logical, although it had a number of good hits. The burden of it was a protest against costly churches, high salaries of ministers, hypocritical Christians, church aristocracy, and denominational intolerance. At the conclusion of the address, the Bishop, because he said he was one, and had under him commissioned ministers) took up a collection for the purpose of defraying his expenses. We are unable to say whether the land-lord was converted or not, but Brad took him in charge. Before eating dinner, the host directed some "good whiskey for the stomach's sake," and took it over the bar, stating that he didn't like the practice of those who profess to be Christians who swigged it behind the doors.

CENTENNIAL DOINGS IN BLOOMSBURG. Wednesday work was perhaps the nearest to an old-fashioned Fourth of July of anything we had for many years. As the town clock struck five in the morning the bells of the churches and public buildings simultaneously rang out in joyous peals, announcing that the sun had risen on the day of opening of the Great Exhibition. For a half hour they disturbed the slumbers of late risers, and summoned many others from their beds to see the "fire." The town was beautifully decorated, Main street especially presenting a gorgeous appearance. The large Democratic flag was suspended from the Court House to the Exchange Hotel.

Judge Ellwell is holding Court in Danville this week. Messrs. Clark, Bucklers, Freese, Heiler, Barkley, Eyerly, and others of our attorneys were in attendance, having business before the court.

M. B. Rozell, agent of P. O. Moody, Scranton, is expected here in a few days to take measures and orders for the celebrated "Moody Shirt." We can recommend gentlemen in need of such garments, to this establishment. A perfect fit is guaranteed.

An important ejectment suit concerning the title to 4.100 acres of coal land in Conyngham was tried in court last week. Judge Maynard, Josiah Coon, Col. Freese and Judge Detrick were employed for the plaintiff and S. P. Clark for the defendant. The trial occupied three days, and resulted in a verdict for the defendant. The case will probably go to the Supreme Court.

A man named Cornelius Carter was arrested in Williamsport on Saturday evening. He made a desperate resistance, and was severely wounded before being secured. An excited mob followed him to the jail, and demanded that he be lynched. He is insane, and had been under treatment at the Danville Asylum for sixteen months.

DECORATION DAY AT ROCK HORN.—The citizens of Rock Horn propose to have a grand celebration on Decoration Day, and are making extensive arrangements under the auspices of the American Mechanics. Rieswick's band-wagon will convey the Rock-Horn band, and each State will be represented by 26 persons, and 36 young ladies in a wagon, appropriately dressed. Capt. John P. Galdis will be Chief Marshal, assisted by Christian Ernst.

A number of fishermen have been up the creek during the present week, after trout. None were more successful than Mayor Lowenberg and W. P. Koons who were gone two days and brought back several hundred and fish. The guests at the Exchange Hotel will be many friends of the gentlemen in town, enjoying the fruits of their trip, in the shape of a delicious trout supper. Four hundred trout in one day is uncommon good luck.

The Republican asks "if we really want Fishberg's Cider how many?" Certainly. We desire to see how many falsehoods the editor can concoct on that subject. The truth as to the Columbia County Invasion, supported by known facts, we have published, and that history has not been contradicted in one point. Yes, tell us all you know, especially about the facts, and we will be glad to publish them.

The beauty of the weather last Sunday drew to the Cemetery a large number of people. The grounds are well kept, but we would suggest the planting of some trees on the north side. The marble work in many instances is admirable, and the setting of the German Reform burying ground has a good many of the features of interest well worth a visit. The crows are now enjoying the excellent pasture in it.

Part XIV. of "A Century After" contains a number of accurate illustrations of scenes at and near Mount Vernon, and is a most interesting volume. One more number will complete the work. It will form a handsome bound volume of nearly 400 pages replete with pictorial representations of the picturesque beauties of Philadelphia and Pennsylvania. Agents wanted to canvass for the book. Address at once, Alan Lane & Scott and J. W. Landerbach, Publishers, 252 South 5th St., Philadelphia.

CANDIDATES.—We announce in this week's issue the names of an additional number of candidates. Many of them have also had cards printed at this office. This is a good idea. Many times when called upon a voter is not at home, and leaving a card shows that he has not been overlooked. Again, a card enables him to keep in mind the name of his favorite, which is a necessity where he is not personally acquainted with him, and where there are numerous candidates.

The State department of public instruction has sent out the annual district report blanks to the different school districts of Pennsylvania, which will have to be filled up, and sworn to by the president and secretary of each district before they can draw the amount of their state appropriation. Among other things they are required to make out that the "financial operations of the district have been published according to law." Those interested had better beware.

TAKA PAPER.—We have added quite a number of new subscribers to our list this week. The presidential contest will be one of absorbing interest to the people, and no family should be without a newspaper. There is no one so poor that he cannot afford to spend the nominal sum of five cents a week for the valuable information that they derive from the weekly visitor newspaper in their family. Send in your names at once, and keep yourselves posted in regard to the events of the day.

The Republican case in a while gets off a good joke. In speaking of the decorations on the 10th it says: The Republican office was the envy of the Democrats the twenty on the 10th. The Democrats did best to equal it, and about 12,000, successful party well. There were more flags displayed than on any other day, and the flag on the sun on that building during the whole rebellion. However a holiday love for the old flag is better than none.

Of course the four little flags on the Republican case the twenty on the 10th. The Democrats did best to equal it, and about 12,000, successful party well. WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 15, 1876. There is just now a marked stillness in political affairs much like that death-like calm which often precedes the most violent storms. The attitude of the two great political parties is like that of a couple of tigers about to engage in deadly combat. Both crouched upon the ground with glaring eyes, each frame quivering with intense emotion, and each ready and anxious upon the slightest movement of the other to make the deadly spring. That this will be one of the warmest political contests that has ever been waged in this country I think is unquestionable. Pending the coming strife the people in this locality seem upon enjoying themselves. Parties have not yet come into the open, and are not being much talked of for each delightful amusement. But May balls and dancing parties are all the rage with the belles and beaux, while gentlemen of a more nervous and active temperament are seeking the more exciting sports of the turf. Last week was prolific of excitement in a series of trotting matches at Brighton Park. And this week will witness the newly organized Jockey Club. Quite a number of fine horses are already assembled and are in training for the stakes. The Fitchburg affair is approaching a crisis and will in all probability be determined today by his resignation. On Saturday the House, after a lengthy discussion of a resolution introduced by Mr. White of Kentucky, instructed the Committee on Rules to inquire into the conduct of Doorkeeper Fitzhugh in the national college, and to report at once. It is a singular fact, but there never was such a number of aspirants for the Presidential nomination and such a diversity of opinion among the "knowing ones" as to who will be the man. Blaine seems at present to be the favorite of the Republicans, and Thurston of the Democrats. The Boston Herald says the better sentiments of the people will control the national party or it will create a contest. The municipal committee requested them to report at once.
